PRIVACY POLICY ON THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA OF CUSTOMERS AND SUPPLIERS
in accordance with the articles 13 and 14 of the "REGULATION (EU) 2016/679
OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL dated April 27th 2016
on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data, as well as on the free movement of such data and repealing Directive 9/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation)"

TÜV AUSTRIA ITALIA - BLU SOLUTIONS S.R.L. provides the following information on the processing of the personal data collected:

Contact details

The data controller is TÜV AUSTRIA ITALIA - BLU SOLUTIONS S.R.L. headquartered in MONTE ROBERTO (AN), Via del Commercio, 6/A - VAT 02217380423.

Legal basis of the processing

The Data Controller processes personal, identifying and non-sensitive data (in particular, name, surname, tax code, VAT number, email address, telephone number - hereinafter, "personal data" or also "data").

His/Her personal data are processed without the express consent for the following purposes:

- conclude contracts for the services of the Controller;
- fulfill the pre-contractual, contractual and tax obligations deriving from existing relationships;
- fulfill the obligations established by law, by a regulation, by the legislation on intellectual property, by community legislation or by an order of the Authority;
- exercise the rights of the Controller, for example the right of defense before the Courts.

Only prior to specific and distinct consent (Article 7 GDPR), for the following Marketing Purposes:

- send by email newsletters, commercial communications and/or advertising material on products or services offered by the Controller.

It is to point out that it is immediately possible to send customers commercial communications relating to services and products of the Controller similar to those the user already benefited from, except his/her dissent.

The processing of personal data is carried out as follows: collection, registration, organization, storage, consultation, processing, modification, selection, extraction, comparison, use, interconnection, blocking, disclosure, erasure and destruction of data.

Personal data are subjected to both paper and electronic and/or automated processing.

The Data Controller will process personal data for the time necessary to fulfill the abovementioned purposes and in any case for no more than 10 years from the termination of the business relationship for the purposes of service and for no more than 2 years starting from the collection of data for marketing purposes.

Personal Data recipients or their categories

With no need of an express consent, the Data Controller may communicate data to Supervisory Bodies, Judicial Authorities, insurance companies for the provision of insurance services, companies performing services in outsourcing, other companies in the group and/or connected to the Controller, as well as to those subjects to whom the communication of these data is mandatory by law for the accomplishment of the mentioned purposes.

These subjects will process data as independent data controllers or external processors, whose list is stored at the registered office of TÜV AUSTRIA ITALIA - BLU SOLUTIONS S.R.L.

The data will not be disclosed or transferred.

Data transfer (tick the applicable option, multiple choice is not allowed)

Personal data may be processed in the U.S. using cloud backup service.

The U.S is a third country (i.e. non-EU) where an adequate level of personal data protection is ensured through an adequacy decision of the Commission (Article 45, par. 3 of the GDPR).

Rights of the data subject

The data subject has the rights as referred to in art. 15 GDPR and precisely the rights of:

- i. obtaining confirmation of the existence or not of personal data concerning him/her, even if not yet registered, and their communication in an intelligible form;
- ii. obtaining information on: a) the origin of personal data; b) the purposes and methods of the processing; c) the logic applied in case of processing carried out with the aid of electronic means; d) the identifying details of the data controller, the data processors and the designated representative pursuant to art. 3, paragraph 1, GDPR; e) the subjects or categories of subjects to whom the personal data may be communicated or who may become aware of it as designated representative in the territory of the State, managers or processors;
- iii. obtaining: a) the updating, editing or, when interested, integration of data; b) the erasure, anonymization or blocking of data processed unlawfully, including data whose storage is unnecessary for the purposes for which the data were collected or subsequently processed; c) proof that the activities listed in letters a) and b) have been brought to the attention, also as regards their content, of those to whom the data have been communicated or transferred, except in the case where such fulfillment proves to be impossible or involves a use of means manifestly disproportionate compared to the protected right;
- iv. to object, in whole or in part: a) for legitimate reasons, to the processing of personal data concerning him/her, even though they are relevant to the purpose of the collection; b) to the processing of personal data concerning him/her for the purpose of sending advertising or direct sales material or for carrying out market research or commercial communication, through the use of automated call systems without the intervention of an operator, by email and/or through traditional marketing methods, by telephone and/or paper mail.

It should be noted that the right to object of the data subject, detailed in point b) above, to direct marketing purposes through automated methods extends to traditional ones and that in any case the possibility remains for the data subject to exercise the right to object even only partially.

Therefore, the data subject can decide to receive only communications by traditional means namely only automated communications or none of both types of communication.

Where applicable, the data subject also have the rights as referred to in Articles 16-21 GDPR (Right of rectification, right to be forgotten, right of restriction of processing, right of data portability, right to object), as well as the right of complaint to the Guarantor Authority.

Automated decision-making processes

There are no automated decision-making or profiling processes.
